Dear Yun Chen:

The Academy of Management will hold its Annual Meeting in Anaheim, California, USA from August 5–9, 2016. The Academy is committed to shaping the future of management research and education. As such, the Annual Meeting plays an integral part in achieving this goal.

The Academy of Management is a leading professional association of scholars dedicated to creating and disseminating knowledge about management and organizations. The Academy's central mission is to enhance the profession of management by advancing the scholarship of management and enriching the professional development of its members. The Academy's membership consists of scholars at colleges, universities, and research institutions, as well as practitioners with scholarly interests from business, government, and not-for-profit organizations. There are 121 countries represented within the Academy's membership.

You are currently registered to attend the Academy of Management's 2016 Annual Meeting. Please note that you are solely responsible for arranging travel, registration and housing accommodations and paying the associated fees due for each. As of January 2016, registration rates are USD $452 for non-member Academics/Executives or USD $199 for full time, non-member Students. This fee includes the annual membership fee and may be subject to change. Hotel and travel fees are additional and are the responsibility of each individual attending the Annual Meeting.

The intent of this letter is to help you obtain a travel visa in order to attend the meeting, for which you have registered. No sponsorship is implied and the Academy of Management assumes no responsibility for your stay in the USA.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "m dejoseph".
